“ I never met Ronald in real life, but I enjoyed having him play in one of my Yahoo Fantasy Baseball leagues for the past several years. He won the championship two years ago and finished the regular season as the top team last year, and was well on his way to finishing at or near the top this year. He certainly knew his baseball. I am dedicating this year’s championship to Ronald’s memory by calling the championship the “Iron Mountain MLB Championship”. Iron Mountain MLB was the name he used for his team. Prayers for comfort for his friends and family at this difficult time. -- Marvin Weindorff

“ I will miss Ron terribly. He was more than a close cousin, he was a dear friend. We grew up together and shared hopes and dreams and laughs thru good times and bad. He handled his illness with strength and grace, and at the same time was there for anyone who needed him. All the Camilletti's have a special place in my heart. You're all in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless You. Dianne & Larry Bagozzi

“ I will always remember Ron as a very thoughtful, caring, and intelligent person. I've known him for nine years after he joined the team at Mattress King. We shared conversations about baseball, politics, the trials and tribulations of being on the Board of a condo association, and many other topics. He will be truly missed by many. Rest in peace.

“ Even though we've lived apart for decades, I am realizing how lucky I am to have had Ron in my life from childhood to our young adult years. We shared many common interests. Too many memories to list here but one was riding with your family to the airport as Ron headed to Chicago for a week at McDonald's Hamburger University. It was a pretty big deal! We spent so many years sharing baseball, ping pong, traveling, being goofy and catching Ron Coden at his Detroit shows. Anyway, I am comforted by those great times and count myself blessed to be one of his earliest Warren friends. ~Mike

“ Ron was a valuable and reliable manager for us at Mattress King. When I would stop in at the store to visit with him he was always positive and quick with a quip. Great sense of humor. A real retail warrior. Always at the top of his game with knowledge and he delivered it professionally and warmly. Customers always felt at ease with Ron. We will deeply miss his friendship and professionalism.

I just found out and feel so saddened for the loss of Ron. My condolences to his family. Ron was one of my first ever bosses at McDonalds in 1975. Many years later in 2006 we reconnected when we worked together at Quicken Loans. We became very close and the mortgage industry collapsed that year. Then as things in life always change and I became his Manager introducing him to a new career that he loved selling Mattresses. He was one of the most honest, caring, smart, and a pleasure to be around people you could ever be lucky in your life to know. I'll miss him very much but I'll never forget him and feel proud to have been able to have him as a life long friend. Our friendship shall always last forever. With prayers from Peter Brozik
