His favorite sport was figure skating. He especially loved traveling with Mark all across the country attending the national championships. He was employed in the communications department at Ruby Memorial Hospital in Morgantown for twenty years. Later in life Ron moved to Minnesota, and ultimately to Michigan, where he and Mark made their home. There will be a celebration of life at a later date. “ I worked with Ron at WVU Hospital (later Ruby Memorial). Ron was such a joy to be around. He was bright, cheerful, and had a sly sense of humor. My whole family enjoyed being around Ron. He called me a few years ago and we chatted for a time, then we said goodbye. I am sooooo sorry that I didn't keep in better contact with this special young man who I still remember so fondly. My heart goes out to all his loved-ones. I and my family will share a part of your sorrow.

“ Ron and I met when he worked at WVU Hospital, and he eventually became one of my dearest friends. After he left Morgantown our friendship continued through his moves to Minnesota and Michigan. Ron was one of my heroes.....despite being confined to a wheelchair caused by childhood polio, Ron never shied away from doing what he enjoyed. He loved to travel and the difficulties involved never deterred him. Before our respective marriages, we traveled together. He taught me to stop dwelling on the “can'ts”, and to simply enjoy the trip. He introduced me to DC, Minnesota and Michigan. AND gambling....he took me to my first gambling casino in Minnesota. I won big, for me, And he promptly made me buy dinner for him with my winnings!
He was a loyal friend and son, cousin and husband. He was one of the biggest and best ,influences in my life. I will miss him so much, his courage, kindness and impish sense of humor.
