“ I had the pleasure of meeting Ron while he was a resident at the Caring Professional home. A softer soul than most dealing with a horrific disease like Parkinson's as my husband, Mike has as well. He was ready to go "HOME" and our Lord welcomed him! 🙏

“ Ron met me at a philosophy course in the 1980s and was a highly respected friend ever since. Ron was a pioneer in the computer industry and in his thinking. He grasped and spread new and better ideas for flourishing on earth - both as individuals and as contributors to a better future. As such, he was among the most benevolent people of all. "Those who fight for the future live in it today." Ron's fine legacy will endure and continue to enrich me and all others who knew and loved him. -- Peter Murphy

“ Ron attended our philosophy discussion group for many years. His wit, intelligence, and humor were always a welcome addition. Ron's contributions to our monthly gatherings made the meetings most enjoyable. We will always remember him fondly. Our sincerest condolences to his family and friends, Alan Paul
