“ In memory of our friend/ neighbor Ron. The neighborhood will never be the same without your wit, insight, quotes and generosity. We'll remember you forever. Yesterday's history, tomorrow's a mystery. RIP

“ My condolences to the family. Death is mankind's greatest enemy it claims the lives of those we love. May you find comfort in Jesus words, "I am the resurrection and the life, he who exercises faith in me even though he dies will come to life.-John 11:25

“ The years we spent as neighbors to Ron and Mary will always be fondly remembered. As a newlywed couple in our first home, Ron was always ready and willing to lend a hand as well as advice on how to tackle our home projects. We couldn't have asked for a better couple of neighbors and they were the one thing we wished we could have taken with us when we moved. Ron was a generous soul, and a great friend who will always hold a special place in our hearts.

“ The McIntosh Family have always made me feel welcomed into their home. For nearly 36 years I have been welcomed to their home no matter what time of day it was. Ron always sent me home with "goodies" and well wishes. I thank him, his wife Mary, son Tim and most of all my "almost twin," their daughter Dottie. Thank you all for making me feel a part of the family. Jesse Smith, Three Rivers, MI

“ Ron, there is so many thing's I'm going to miss about you. You were indeed a special man who made friends everywhere you went. When we would come to visit, we always went home with something you thought we couldn't live without. I'm going to miss my dear friend, who always ended our phone conversation... Tell everyone you meet today hello. You always had a story or a joke to tell us, and as always, I believed everything you said. I'm going to miss your kindness and the live you had for everyone. You always made a friend wherever you went. You were a strong man who fought hard and I'm going to miss you so much. I find comfort in telling someone, yesterday is History, today is a Mistery and tomorrow is a Gift. Until we meet again my dear friend, rest in peace. Your sister in law ,
Betty

“ Uncle Ron was a collector of everything, and whether it was a top for an old canister you were in need of...or just a quote to make you smile - he always had plenty!
There's many things that a person can leave stamped in your heart...and he just had a way about him like no other.
I'll keep all of those memories in a safe place and I'll think of you often.
