“ Dear Gayla and Angie, On behalf of myself and Irene, we were very sorry to hear of your bereavement at this time. Irene tells me that Ron, even as a young man was a kind, gentle, lover of Jehovah. The bible, at Ecclesiastes chapter 7, tells us that the most important goal we have in this life is the acquiring of a good name with God. Gayla - your husband, and Angie - your father certainly accomplished that in his life. What a beautiful success that is, a true achievement especially in this system. May Jehovah strengthen you both in your time of sorrow while those of us that know and love you are doing as Jesus said, "weeping with those who weep". Much Love, Richard and Irene Greiner

“ Dearest Gayle and Angie, We wanted to let you know that you're so very thought about at this difficult time with sympathy and concern. Although we did not know your family well, we have heard through the years through our extended family of your and Ron's positive and encouraging life choices that face us all - and that Ron was our brother, faithful to Jehovah until the end, and, really, isn't that all we need to know.? His life's service and everything there is to know about him as a man is safely preserved in the memory of our God Jehovah, who through His Son Jesus' loving ransom in our exchange, "is not unrighteous so as to forget your work and the love you showed for his name.." Until Paradise unites us all, Eunice & Jim Nefe
