“ Ron was one of the most special Men I have ever met,he always knew how to cheer one up and make them Laugh,This past year I have been going through Cancer treatment and I told him he was the best Medicine for me and he was.I also came to know his Son Justin and my heart breaks for this young Man,he and his dad loved one another so much.Rons long life friend Elaine,she was the angel God sent to him, she never left his side during this past illness,you could see the love they had for one another,my heart breaks for her,I know that her life will be so empty without Ron in it.My deepest sympathy to Elaine and to Justin,The world will be a sadder place without Ron. I loved you Ron,Bonnie

“ So long, Ron. You'll be missed greatly, especially by Elaine Sherlock Powers who adored you, spent many nights at your bedside holding your hand, dreaming big dreams of recovering and frolicking anew in South Carolina, New York or Vermont. You were lifelong friends, and that is the dearest kind of friend of all. Enjoyed getting reacquainted with you Ron, we were Hideout buddies in high school and you knew how to charm the girls. Up in heaven you'll be charming the pretty angels with the harps and halos. You deserve good things, having endured some tragic illnesses. Sending love from Elaine, her family and circle of friends that cherish you now and always. Maureen McDonald

“ Ron was the "love of my life" for four years. When I first met Ron I thought he was a man that needed some TLC. Our relationship for the next four years was all about that. Things weren't always perfect, but I have a lot of loving memories that no one can take away from me. His family was more than generous in accepting me. They are all in my heart and in my prayers. Love Always, Debbie

“ Hello, I only worked with Ron in Lansing for a short while. I can tell you he was a hoot. He could do funny imitations and always made me laugh and he was always very kind. He would make it a point to go out of his way to cheer me up when he knew I was having a down day. I was there the day the call came about his new liver. I felt so honored to be there and have never felt the feelings I had at that moment. He was a good guy! God's blessing to the entire family. He will be missed. Anna Ramos Weese
