“ Hello Nancy - I "think" I am replying to your post but I am honestly not sure. If this gets to the correct person, I am an old friend of Susan's from high school. First of all - please pass along my condolences to her, I would imagine this has been a very tough year for her. Also, please let her know I have such fond memories of our high school years and I would dearly love to reconnect with her. I've been trying to find her for awhile... if she doesn't want to be found, I don't want to intrude on her life. However - if she'd like to share a cup of coffee and a few memories with an old friend - please let her know I would welcome the time together. My maiden name was Donna Conley, I am now Donna Saltsman ~ I work at D.J. Conley Associates in Troy, MI. I answer phones here so I'm very easy to reach 248-589-8220. Thank you in advance!

“ Suzie, We know you are so very sad to have lost your best friend, your partner, your husband, just try to remember him in a better place. You are one "special lady" and we are so fortunate to have you in our lives. Tim & John think the world of their stepmom and all the happiness that you brought to their Dad. All are love, Maury & Carol

“ To the entire Taylor family. We are deeply sorry for your loss. A precious man taken way too soon. May you all be strength for one another. Ronnie was a genuine man and always said it like it was. He brought so much joy and happiness to my sister Donna everyday and I know how deeply he loved her too. With each passing day, you all will get stronger.

“ Susie and Ronnie-just like two little peas in a pod! What a cute couple! I admired your devotion and love for each other. It was never more evident than these last several months. I am happy you had lots of happy years together. Ronnie, You put up a great fight. May you now rest in peace. I will miss you. Susie, I know your loss is great. May you also have peace. You know your family is here for you. Tim and John, You are GREAT! No wonder your dad was so proud! God Bless all of you...

“ Uncle Ron, you are finally at peace. Here's hoping you are having a grand time fishing and boating and spending time in the sun with all your old pals. I can still see you tinkering with engines and gardening out in the backyard... and thank you always for that day you drove me down to Detroit in that monster truck of yours during a snowstorm. Aunt Susie, my thoughts and prayers and giant hugs are with you across the miles today and always. Love, Denise

“ As I'm outside doing work around the house today thinking of you Dad,I realized what I wanted to say to everyone that will read this. As we spent our last months together, You, Susie and I, we prayed and talk about our Lord, that our Lord will give us hope and peace and that knowing him and beleving in him our lord Jesus Christ that we would not have any fear, in fact we found comfort knowing that Dad will be in a wonderful place. And I know this to be true, as I looked at my father on that morning, I could clearly see he was at peace, you could see it on his face. There was no fear in his eyes or on his face at all. I could only emagine that morning how dad felt as our Lord held out his hand to him and said, come with me Ronnie and dont be affraid, I will comfort you and your family. Thats what I saw on your face Dad. I will miss you dad, I love you and will see you again.

“ Dear Susie and Boys, I was so sorry to hear from my son Mark Taylor that Ronnie had passed away. I always held him dear to my heart. He was a generou sand loving brother-in-law for many years. For the short visit with both Ronnie and Susie a few years back, when he opened his home to me and my Granddaughter April, I've known him to be a wonderful friend also. God Bless him and the family in your hour of grief. Love Phyllis
