

Ronald F. Wilson

April 11, 1956 - March 30, 2014

WILSON RONALD FRANK Age 57, March 30, 2014. Beloved father of Craig Megan and Shawn Nicholas Sr. Engler. Dear son of Ronald and Frances. Beloved grandson of Lawrence, his Fiancée Kim M. Lawyer and your precious Jak'. Dear Grandfather of Nicolas Jr., McKenzie, Kennedy and Chase. Also survived by six brothers and sisters. David, Brian, Paul, Mike Diane, Lori Mike and Karen Tom. Ronald was proud of his academic accomplishments at both Macomb Community College and Ferris State. He enjoyed his career as an engineer at Chrysler. He was an advent hunter and enjoyed spending time at his cabin Up North where he would gaze at the buck near the lake. He anticipated hunting camp with his son, brothers, Dad and friends where they "became one" and shared their hunting stories. Ronald's memory will remain alive as these stories will be forever told in future Hunting Seasons. He took pride in the fact that he would win the dollar bills for getting the largest deer. These bills will always remain and his son will now carry on this legacy for him. He adored his grandchildren and loved all the family gatherings. He always looked forward to his Casino trips, the Mt. Pleasant trip in April to celebrate him and his mother's birthday and his yearly Vegas trip with his brothers where the saying "What Happens in Vegas, Stays in Vegas" fit perfectly. He was loved and admired by all for his wisdom and great sense of humor. He was a great man; his presence in our lives was precious and will be treasured. Our lives will be forever changed and he will be deeply missed. Dad you will always be our hero and in the wind you are still alive. Family will receive friends at the Wm Sullivan & Son Funeral Home, 8459 Hall Road 3 Blks E. of Van Dyke, Utica. Wednesday 4:00pm - 9:00pm and Thursday 1:00pm - 9:00pm with his funeral service at 7:30 pm Thursday. Family request donations for his headstone to honor him. Please share a memory at www.sullivanfuneraldirectors.com

Tribute Wall

BW

“ When the sun comes up on opening morning and the sky is just starting to change colors and it's quiet and you here the light wind echo through the pines, that's ron coming to share the hunt with us. And the beautiful sunrise starts to glow, that's ron smiling at us. Then u hear the echoing shot from the hardwoods and u sit there and smile and say to yourself.....ron got his trophy. Gods speed brother. Have a beautiful journey.

Brian wilson - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CC

“ Ron, as you start your journey into your next chapter always remember you are loved & missed so very much. You are at peace now & I can promise we will keep your memory alive in our hearts as we look back & reflect on you life with us..

Cindy Calamia - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

BJ

“ I had the great pleasure of working with Ron here at Chrysler. He was one of the most genuine, articulate and a pleasant guys around He will be missed by all who worked with him including myself. Rest In Peace Ron. We miss you..... Bill and Julie Jolley

Bill Jolley - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

KR

“ Shawn and family, n so very sorry for your loss. Please know that you and your family are in our prayers during this difficult time.

Kristie - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

KL

“ Ron my love, words can not express how much you are deeply missed already. I will always keep our love that we treasured for one another. Your Jak' still looking for his daddy and nows that he is still here with us.

Kim M. Lawyer - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CW

“ Great father and a even better friend I will miss him greatly but i know i will be hunting with him again soon

Craig Wilson - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

LF

“ He was such a good neighbor. We will miss him. Our prayers for the family and Kim on this very difficult time.

Leonard and karen Fritz - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

AF

“ Missed

A Friend - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

PD

“ God Bless you and your Family..

Patricia Duncan - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CF

“ Kirk and Rachael Collier We are so sorry for the loss of a very loved person in the Wilson Family/Clan. This family is very dear to us and praying that as time passes your hurt will turn to smiles and memories. He is not gone, just moved on to the next journey and one day we will all see him again.. and that will surely bring a smile to our/your faces! God Bless all of you.

Collier Family - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

RO

“ I worked with Ron recently and shared our experiances of loss and challenges we faced. And how our faith saw us through difficult times. Ron was a commited man of God. Even though his loss is painful to so many, this wonderful, soft spoken, caring man who always had a smile for everyone, is recieveing his ultimate reward. Ron was one of those quiet people that lived his spritual life by example as many of you know. God, I'm sure, is welcoming Ron to his heavenly home. His faith has guaranteed him that, as God promised through Jesus Christ. I will miss him. I will miss his stopping by my workstation at the end of the day to wish me a safe journey home. Safe journey, Ron. Well done friend.

Ron O'Leary - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM