“ Aunt Rose was a staunch advocate of 3 things in her life. First of all her faith in God and trust in the help of the Blessed Mother. Aunt Rose introduced me to Our Lady of Fatima when she hosted the traveling statue in her home.

Second only to her faith was her devotion to family. She tirelessly aided without always being asked. Like taking me to purchase my wedding dress in the absence of my mother.

And lastly but still of great importance is her diligence in getting her family members and friends to not smoke! I joined her in cutting down by using water filters. They helped me to eventually quit for good.

Love you Auntie Rosie ❤️
