“ Rosie,
You were a devout Catholic and exemplified that every day of your life. You never said a bad word about anyone & always found good in everything. The world is worse off without you in it, but you are at peace in heaven now. I will always love your kind, compassionate & thoughtful soul.

“ Aunt Rosie,
Thank You for loving me even though as a child I thought of you as Uncle Eddie's Wife. Though the ages you never forgot my birthday and always made me feel special. All of us will never forget the awesome gifts from Aunt Rosie. Most people don't remember that when you worked as a secretary that you were a fashion trendsetter buying you clothes at Somerset (now known as the Somerset Collection). I remember all the fun times we had together when you and Uncle Eddie lived with us on Yacama. You will be greatly missed.
