Rose was a wonderful Wife, Mother, Grandmother and homemaker. In her earlier years she belonged to the St. Angela Catholic Church Altar Society, where she cleaned the altar and priest garments. She worked at the Red Cross and knitted blankets for the Veterans. Worked at the PTA. Rose knitted , crochet , sewed clothes and drapery. An excellent cook, baker, canned everything.

Loved to garden growing African Violets and Roses. Played her little accordion and had band night with her son- Anthony and daughter- Madeline. She was self taught to play the organ, loved her ceramics. Her love of dancing extended to Ballroom, Rumba and many others.

Her greatest thrill was going to her first promo at the age of 92 at Medilodge of Sterling Heights and danced the whole time.
