“Rosemary had one weakness that I knew of and that was the Casino. When we went, she won as often as she lost. We always enjoyed a nice meal and if there long enough a nice dessert before we left. She always enjoyed our outings and was a generous tipper. Everywhere we went to eat, the personnel would walk up and strike up a conversation with Rosemary. They knew her where ever we went. I will miss her. God Bless you, Rosemary.”
