“ Mrs. Remer was my 7th grade teacher at Trinity in 1983, and one of my favorites. I was an awkward ugly duckling at that age, but she was always warm and kind to each of us in her class. I remember that her son Todd died of a terrible accident, slipping off a hiking trail, and it left such a deep impression on my young mind, that life can end so suddenly and leave undeserving loved ones in grief. I always hoped that Mrs. Remer found consolation from that anguish, and now I pray that she and Todd are together again at last in Heaven.

“My sister, Lisa, and I both had Mrs. Remer while we attended Trinity. She was a favorite of both of us. She was always warm and welcoming, and laughed easily with her students. I'll never forget sitting in her classroom the day she first mentioned the Washington, D.C. trip. Sitting on her stool with those big, old windows behind her, she said, "You know, I've always wanted to take a group of students to Washington, D.C." Our eyes grew wide with excitement, and a few months later, we were there. We were very proud to be part of the inaugural group, but it was all because of Mrs. Remer's inspiration! She certainly gave us many fond memories and a lifelong love of learning. And she will always be one of my favorite teachers. Peace and blessings to her family and many friends.”

“ Ms. Remer was the first person that my daughter meet when we were getting a tour of Trinity with Mr Wrege . She touched my daughter's hand and said, Welcome. It was so sweet. With her wonderful smile and her warm heart my daughter instantly wanted to go there. My daughter couldn't wait to have her one day for a teacher. She will not get that chance, but the love and support that Ms. Remer gave her truly blessed us. Every time she saw my daughter in the hallway she talked to her, and asked her how she was doing. I am so thankful to god for that, she loved and cared about my child when she needed it the most. Sending our love and prayers, The Weaver Family

“I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love.” -Leo Buscaglia Trudi, I hope you take comfort in this quote. It has helped me. Much love, Andrea

“Mrs. Remer was my 7th-8th Grade Social Studies Teacher & 8th Grade Home Room Teacher at Trinity. She was an amazing woman of God who always shared her faith with her students and cared for each of them as if they were her own children. She will be missed here on earth but I'm sure that it was a glorious reunion when she reached heaven and saw Todd & Jim. Trudi & family - You are in my thoughts and prayers during this time. May you take solace in the good news that we will all be reunited with you mom in heaven due to her faith in her redeemer.

“ Mrs. Remer was my 7th grade teacher in 84-85. She was a phenomenal educator and a beautiful person. She was always bringing in baked goods for her class. Mrs. Remer introduced me to snickerdoodles, which remain my favorite cookie to this day. I always think of her when I eat a snickerdoodle! Trudi, I can only imagine the deep sense of loss that you are feeling. I hope that it makes your heart smile to think of your mom being reunited with your dad and your brother. What a joyous reunion that must have been! You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.

“ Rose taught our three children at Trinity. She was part of the inspiration for our son Tim to become a Lutheran middle school and high school Social Studies Teacher. I heard the song "I Can Only Imagine" for the first time at her husband Jim's funeral. Praise God that Rose no longer needs to just imagine heaven but can now experience eternity with Jesus, her husband Jim, son Todd, and all the saints in pure joy. Mike and Kay Greve
