“ It's been a long time since I have seen Rose but I can only smile when I think of her. I have so many wonderful childhood memories with her in it. The 4th of July parties, hanging in her side of house and then turning 21 and being able to have a beer with her and all of the people looked up to my entire life. She will always have a place in my heart. RIP Rose!

It's been many years and many miles since I seen Rose. I thought of her often, if she was ok, if she was happy,when I finally found out about her threw her best friend,Joni,her fate had been cast.I thought of seeing her in her last days,but call me selfish, I wanted to remember her as she was, a beautiful, funny, decent human being anyone would love to call friend. Rose please rest your tired self,till that day when were all together again. Love,Tom Mcintyre

“ I will miss seeing Aunt Rosie every week when I visit my mom.. She was more than my mom's best friend for the past 55 years, she was family to us.... Always had a smile and laughed at pretty much most things people said.. She had a heart of gold and would drop anything to help me out at anytime I needed her. Have so many good memories from Jarts in her front yard as a kid, her fat fat cat, watching Tigers games, trips to Vegas, and many many more!!!!... My Grandparents always wanted Rosie around.. and she was gracious enough to help us with Grandma the last few years of her life. Gramps would say "you know I like that Rosie" ... we all knew it! .I feel honored and grateful to have had her such a big part of my and my moms life all these years and how we always stuck together. Rest peacefully. xo

Love you Aunt Rose!!
Love, Mers

What can I say about my dear treasured friend " Miss Rosie ". You will be in my heart and sole until we meet again in Heaven. Always smiling, joking and raring to go. Most of all, how the sun would shine in your presents, even if it was going to rain. I thank God for having you in my life. I Love You Missie!, Sharee

Rose and I first met many years ago at the Ford sterling plant. I remember her as a woman who always has a smile on her face. She will be missed by many people. I am certain that Rose is walking with our Lord, Jesus Christ. May God bless Rose
