“ Grandpa Roy, you have always been a guiding light in our lives, and I have always looked up to you as someone who I'd like to emulate. You lived life through joy and love, and I have always known that we all held a special place in your heart. Your playful and heartfelt relationship with Grandma has always been the marriage that I hoped to have, and it makes me happy when I see elements of your marriage in my own. Your stories, special dances, grandfatherly advice, and peculiar eating habits will forever live in my memories and in the way that I live my life, and your spirit, joy, and faith will continue to influence us all. You don't have to worry, I will stay away from wooden nickels, and I'll clap and dance in perpetuity. With eternal love and respect, Sonny.

“ Sincere Condolences to you Ron, your brothers and loved ones. Yes, I do remember your father. I've not forgotten about the beautiful compact given me which came from across many, many miles, Guam. I've always wondered what happend to you and your family...and how long you stayed at your old address two doors down from me?! Wishing you all well. - Marlene

“ Roy was a very unique individual. I think Bill put it perfectly when he said that this was a man who knew how to love unconditionally and he practiced it. Those were not just words for him but a great part of his life. I feel very fortunate to have known him.

“ Papa Roy has always, and will continue to hold a special place in our family and in our hearts. He accepted my family as his family on the day that he married my mom. He never once embraced my wife, children, or myself with anything less than unconditional love. Even though we were separated by many miles we knew that we had a mentor, a friend, and someone who loved us as his own children and grandchildren. He was always affectionately referred to as "Papa Roy" by all in my immediate family. This was not out of disrespect but rather a result of the special relationship that we shared together. We will miss his stories, his dance jig, his smile and laughter. Here was a man who knew how to love unconditionally. He dedicated his life to his God, wife mother, and to all of us who were fortunate to be his children. We will always miss you and there will always be a emptiness in our heart with your passing. We will one day dance together again. Love always, Your children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren... Bill, Denise, Billie, Wayne, Sonny, Junko, Todd, Michael, And Chelsea

“ I will always remember seeing his smiling face upon entering church. He always had a kind word for everyone and was loved by all who knew him. He will be missed by all.

“ My grandfather was the hardest working man I knew in every way possible and was truly filled with the Holy Spirit. He always kept things in perspective and put God first in every situation. He was one person in my life who taught me things were not black and white - you can serve at the alter and have tattoos, it is possible to be faithful in the church while being productive in the world, and most importantly that even though you may not be tied by blood, to love your family unconditionally. To myself and my cousins, we were never his step-grandchildren, only his grandchildren and he loved us and my grandmother until his last day with all of his heart. Thank you for the memories Grandpa Roy with all of your Megans, special turkeys bought for Thanksgiving, for sharing a love of Frankenmuth with me, your war stories, and for all of the wonderful memories. It will not be the same without you, but we are comforted in the fact that we will meet again in eternity. XOXOXOXOXOXO

“ Our family has a missing link now. Uncle Roy was always alot of fun to be around. He treated each of his nieces and nephews like his own children. We will miss him greatly. We send our love and prayers to Aunt Audrey.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. At Luke 20:38 God says: he is a God, not of the dead but of the living, for they are all living to him. Yes to God, his loyal ones who have died faithful to him, are as good as alive, their resurrection is certainty. So yes, you may be able to see your loved one again soon. Please find comfort is this, you and your family, during your difficult days ahead.

“ Dear family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Rev. Roy "LeRoy" Warsaw. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes many different emotions which are somewhat unpredictable. Let me tell you my favorite Bible text. Maybe some of these scriptures will also help you. â??Blessed be. . . the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.â?â??2 Corinthians 1:3, 4. John 5:21, 28, 29 Yes, Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever under peaceful, paradisaic conditions.

“ Dear Warsaw family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Roy Warsaw. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest.
