“ To Roy, Charlie, Craig and the rest of the McDonald clan, You have lost a father, father-in-law and grandfather and our thoughts are filled with the grief that must be in your hearts during this exceedingly difficult time. I wish it were possible for both of us to make the trip to Michigan this week. Please know that you have our deepest sympathy. With Love, Richard and Brian

“ Roy, Charles and Craig I am so sad to hear about your dad. I couldn't help but think about your dad's visit to the funeral home when my dad died. What a good man!!! Losing your dad is a hard thing. It sucks actually. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. There was a song my dad wanted played at his funeral, it was by John Mcdermott and these are some of the words to that song: "He was more than just a father. A teacher, my best friend. Though he may be gone memory lingers on, and I miss him, the old man".
