“ Our extended family is so lucky to have spent many delightful times with Bob and Elaine. Such kindness, humor, and interest in what we've been doing -- all genuine and warm--creating good feelings and fond memories that will last on and on.

“ We just found out of Bob's passing. He and Aunt Elaine as we called her were very special to us and my Parents. Dorothy and Waino Knuttila. Mom and Dad had them stay with us for a little over a month when we were kids, we all enjoyed them so much. Uncle Bob use to love his jokes.. Mom90 yrs old and I were looking for his address to send him a Christmas card because he just sent us a letter in Sept. So sorry we missed him ! He is with the love of his life and chatting with my Father !! Love you Uncle Bob he isn't our real Uncle but when they stayed with us we all started calling them our Aunt and Uncle God Bless his Family he will be sadly missed. Terry Gatiss

“ When I was a kid, Bob and Elaine would visit our family in the 1950's in Southfield,MI. I always looked forward to their visits. Bob always had an interest in what I was doing and took the time to play ball with me. He will always be remembered as being very loving and the perfect southern gentleman.
