“Dad always seemed to find things in life that brought him great joy. And he was always willing to share with others. He loved to be with people. At times, his generosity seemed almost endless. And after you thanked him, he would simply reply, "It's my greatest pleasure". And we believed that it was. Today we celebrate over 84 years of hard work and friendship and love. And together we can carry forward dad's spirit, and his smile, for the next 84 years. It can be our greatest pleasure too. Rudy Jr.

“I am deeply sadden by Rudy's passing. I was fortunate and honored to have him in my life. He was always there to give me advice and show me how to be a man, he was the father I should have had. He not only showed me guidance, but he made me feel love the way a father should love his son. He always knew how to make me and everyone smile, but he always knew how to brighten up people lives. I will miss Rudy very much. My condolences to everyone in his family.

“ Grandpa Montano, Though I did not see you often, I will forever cherish the memories I have with you. I was always so proud to have a Grandpa who lived in Vegas, one who would send me the coolest things to bring in to class for show-and-tell. I very much enjoyed listening to the stories you had to share and knowing that you would be there for me whenever I needed you. With just a pinch of my cheek, I knew how much you loved me. I wish I was there to say my good-byes in person and share your memory with the family. I am glad that you are in a better place now and can rest in peace. We will miss you. With love, Melissa and Aaron

“Dear Grandpa, There's just not enough room on this page to truly express the kind of man you were. You had an amazing ability to light up a room simply by being in it and you brought fun, humor and love to every situation. Most of all, you valued our family – your " #1" as you called it. I will always remember the times we spent together in Las Vegas you as the city's best tour guide, the little pinch on the cheek you'd give me every time we said hello or goodbye, and that license plate you had "named after" me ; You'd always start our phone conversations with an enthusiastic "Julie! Julie! Julie!" and end them with, "I'm so proud of you." Grandpa, I have been proud of you every day of my life. I am honored to be your granddaughter and I will love you always. Love, Julie "JLE 330"

“ Grandpa, It makes me happy that you are finally at peace. I am so grateful for the one-on-one time we were able to spend together when we both lived on this side of the country. I will keep living the west coast lifestyle, keep "doing the good stuff", and try not to talk to anyone. Kiss Grandma for me. XoXo
