“ Dear Jonella & Davis Family, My prayers are with you as I remember the kind, loyal and humorous man that Russ was during and after our time at the IRS. We met in the computer programming class, late summer of 1970. It started a long term friendship involving some work, but mostly sharing stories of the families that we loved. God grant him peace.

“ Our deepest sympathies at your loss. "Mr. Davis" as I always called him, as a friend of Bill's growing up, was a very kind, nurturing, thoughtful, and good all-around man. He was obviously a great husband and father, as it is reflected in the character of his children, and I know that he will be missed by all who knew him. Cherish all of the good memories to honor his life. Sincerely, Jeff & Brenda Good
