“ We are sad for your loss. Uncle Russ gave us all happy memories. It could be a boat ride, where you know he was going to get you wet, his laugh, the cigars planted in the front lawn, tickets to Red Wing games. It might be just going for a ride in his convertible or games of bumper pool, where he would try hard to lose. It could be time spent making sure that new bike with chrome fenders was hidden for the surprise. The time when dad saved him from drowning in Lake St. Clair. The friend who came to help out a friend in need. I hope someone else steps forward to be that kind of friend which we will miss in our life.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you be comforted by our ... God and Father of our Lord... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God". 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Please also find comfort in the following: John 11:11 where Jesus said, "...Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from the sleep." Our Heavenly Father holds out the hope of the resurrection and the ability to see our loved ones again.
