“ Russ Voris showed me that homosexuality was not the Catholic way. During the 1990s I was involved in many of the leather bear events with his son, Michael. I loved being covered in another man's sweat and the caring embrace of an older man. Russ turned me on to Jesus and showed me the true way. I am no embracing my sinful homosexuality and I now work in Theater and expressing the truth of Jesus in my dance and musical theater.

Remember Michael in your prayers. He's been let go, asked to resign from CHURCH MILITANT over a 'morality clause' issue. My heart aches for him. Bless you Klep for your Faith. There is nothing so bad, so ugly, or so dark that God cannot fix, repair, heal.

We rejoice that we can ask Him to accompany us in our Dark Days of the Soul.

God love you.
