“ It was with such sadness that we received the news about Russ' death only last night. Instantly we thought of all the happy years we had known Beth and Russ, of the carefree hours ours sons Dylan and Bryce had spent with Nels, many of them under the watchful eye of Russ. And of the great respect and admiration we had for Russ for his steadfast commitment to maintaining dignity and a decent way of life for working people. We remember warmly the support and friendship that Russ and Beth always showed our family. Please accept our heartfelt sympathies for his loss. He was a fine, good man. Beth, you and the boys will be in our thoughts and prayers. Courage to you during this heartbreaking time. -- Aida, Brian, Dylan and Bryce

“ Words can not express how shocked and sad I am to hear about the loss of Russ. My deepest sympathy to Beth and the boys and I will always remember that wonderful smile and beautiful heart. I was thinking back to the 30 odd years of friendship, Frog softball, Hosmers, plumbers, and later years seeing Russ and Beth, looking so happy, at church on many Christmas Eves. I know he will always live in the hearts of everyone that ever knew him. Love, Donna Hart
