“ Ruth was my neighbor when we first moved out to the Brighton area. Her and George and Cindy and Bill came riding up in their, I believe it was called a Scout. She introduced herself to my patients and myself and said you can call me Ruth. My catholic mother promptly told me that I would not call her Ruth, but Mrs. Pirman. I thought she was the coolest person. I was always jealous of all the handmade clothing that Cindy had, that she didn't care for. I was a frequent visitor to dinner where they would watch with anticipation to see if I figured out what small animal was in the dish I was eating, that I thought was chicken or something. She was a great cook. When I moved out to my first place, just up the street, she would stop in and we would talk for a long time. She was always supportive of me and would help me though difficult times. I had not seen her in quite some time but she was an amazing woman. I'm so sorry for your loss.
