“ Mr. & Mrs. Gilginas & Colleen, Ryan's passing has caused me to go down memory lane quite a bit. He loved life and knew how to show it to anyone and everyone. He'd want you to keep the corners of your mouth up and carry on with laughter, friends and family, three of his favorite things. Never lose sight of those. Love, Tiffany

“ I just heard of Ryan's passing... unfortunately too late to pay my respects in person to his family. I worked with Ryan at AAA and he was such a fun and endearing young man -- seems like he could laugh at just about anything... and, in turn, could make me laugh too. I surely do miss him.

“ I am very shocked and sad to know the loss of Ryan when I just came back to work today! Ryan used to sit next to my cube at AAA Life Insurance Company for a long time. His laughters, smiles, jokes and spirit are the good memories he had for us that will not pass away. My prayers are with the Mom, Dad and Ryan's all family members - God Bless You All!

“ Ryan and I worked together at Quicken Loans. I met Ryan when a bunch of us from Quicken went to Cleveland to build a playground for a school. Ryan worked hard the entire day and was easy to be around. He was a very positive person and I'm glad I had the pleasure to know him.

“ I met Ryan only a couple short months ago when we built a playground together in Cleveland. In the last couple months I was proud to say that we became friends and shared quite a few laughs. I have never met anyone as extreme as Ryan. Regardless of what he was doing he did it to the maximum. I will never forget his smile and laugh.

“ Dear Family & Friends of Ryan, I am both shocked and saddened to hear of your loss. I know that everyone who knew Ryan shares in your grief. I worked with him at AAA and I have to tell you that no one could be around him without smiling. There were time when I felt stressed that I would seek him out just to get a lift. I pray that he has been received into the Kingdom and is making God laugh right now. The gift of his smile and humor are eternal in our hearts. May God comfort you and your people in this time of sorrow and Bless you with awesome memories to warm your hearts.
