“ What do you say about a young man who passes away at age 23 ? That He was gifted, talented and well loved ? Yes, this and much more can be said of Ryan. He was loving, sensitive, kind, considerate and a real gentleman. He would be glad to help you and merely say " No Problem ". He had a loving family who thought the world of Him. His mother's "little man" as a boy, His grandmother's "man of the house", His sister's "big brother". His friends all thought the world of Him. He brought joy and love into the world with His wit and sense of humor. I could go on and on but the truth is that we have lost our best friend. We are sad but know that God will be there for Ryan because of His gentle soul. We miss Him but He will be with us always. We love you Ryan, and know you love us. You've told us that and we believe You. You left us way too early but we will see you again. I know all our loved ones that have passed are glad to meet You. Share your humor and wit with them as you have with us. Tell them we will all be together again one day in the Glory of God. Take care my "Best Man", I Love You and will never forget You. You fought hard in a world that can be very cruel at times. Your lack of a killer instinct may have been your demise, but I love and respect that about You. Take care "my Son", and know that I love You and will see You again one day. May God bless You. Love You, Your Step Dad, Larry “ Ryan , You & I grew together during this journey that we called life. You were always so practical you never asked for the things that I couldn't afford, just for what you needed. Your passion in life was to make me happy and you did every moment. I will always remember our private conversations about the things that you wanted for yourself and me and I'm so grateful that I had the last few months with you, for our own one on one time everyday. I will miss you more & more each new day. You were my prince,protector,and now my guardian ANGEL. You're with me everywhere I am. Your Mother, SAMANTHA I WILL LOVE YOU NOW AND FOREVER!!!!

“ Ryan had may talents and always could bring a smile to someones face with his zany antics. Just thinking of him acting up brings a smile to my face.He was always very humourous and he was so good with music. You could tell him a song and give him a couple of days and he would be playing it on his keyboard.I will miss you Ryan , especially that million dollar smile of yours that could light up any room you walked into. Be well my friend and keep those lady angels laughing up there.

“ Ryan my friend, my big brother, the person that NO MATTER WHAT always made me and everyone else laugh. I love you so much and always will. You and I had our last trip to Florida just a couple months ago, and now I'm so glad we got to share that time together. I remember in the beginning we fought like cats and dogs haha but then we went to Fort Myers beach and hung out for the night, which now I'm soo happy we did. We searched the t-shirt stores for a good two hours and got to go to Baskin Robbins on the way there. We also went to super wal-mart your favorite place of all time. Kayaking I think was the best. Oh the good times we shared, that's just one of them there's way too many to explain. All I can really say now is that I've been thinking about you so much and I just have this peacefullness over me because I know you're with God and that you're still here with me each and every day making sure I'm alright. I'm so glad for the time that I had from you in life and that we got to share all those special times together. I'm so thankful and honored to have you as my brother the one who taught me how to do so many things and when I was feeling down always knew how to cheer me right up. Now every year I will share your new life along with my birthday. I'm so glad that you got to tell me how much you loved me before you passed away and now our love will never change it just gets stronger everyday. I'm going to keep holding on and living my life because I know you're always there with me every step of the way and I thank you for that. Love always and forever, your little sister Katie

“ Ryan You will be dearly missed, Our journey together started back when we were in IMAS class at Coolidge Middle School I was in 8th grade you were in 7th we sat next to each other. Then you came back into my life, at Mcdonalds where i worked that is when we started our lives together for 4 yrs, all the good times and the bad, after we went our sperate ways you lived your life to the fullest and you left this world, You will always be in my heart cause of the special times we had with the family, I love you very very much and I know I will see you again soon sitting and walking with god, You will never be forgotten, Watch over your family while looking down on all of us cause they need you the most through this hard time of having to lose there beloved son, brother, grandson and great grand son. To the family remember all the joy that Ryan brought to all of your lives and just think about the good times you all shared cause Ryan would not want anyone of us to be sad for him, he would say continue on with your lives and I will see you again in Heaven. God Bless Love April C. Evelyn P.S. I love all of you Samantha, Larry, Margarie, and Katie
