

Sabrina Celestine Fodera

March 14, 1960 - November 22, 2025

Sabrina Celestine Fodera (née Knoppe), age 65, of Royal Oak, passed away on November 22, 2025. She will be warmly remembered for her natural beauty, kind spirit, friendliness, and her inquisitive, adventurous and spontaneous ways. Sabrina was always the thoughtful one, remembering everyone's birthday or anniversary. She possessed a beautiful captivating smile that truly lit up a room and had an engaging personality that naturally drew many people to her.

Born in Detroit on March 14, 1960, Sabrina grew up in Madison Heights, attending St. Mary Magdalene Grade School and graduating from Madison High School.

Sabrina began her career working as part of a co-op in the water department for the City of Madison Heights, where she performed key punch operations. She later became a bank teller at Wayne Oakland Bank, a job she cherished as it was there that she met her future husband, John. After taking time off to raise her children, she returned to banking at Fidelity Bank. In the years that followed she found fulfillment as a dedicated caregiver for two different individuals.

A true creative spirit, Sabrina was a gourmet cook who prepared dinners for her family with a passion. She possessed a huge green thumb, cultivating a garden that produced many types of vegetables and fruits, including her grapevine and rhubarb. Sabrina's yards were an impressive display of continuously blooming flowers of all types and many planted trees, including oak, ash, maple, two magnolias, lilac and evergreens.

Sabrina embraced the outdoors, especially enjoying camping with the camper she and John shared. She always looked forward to eating many, many marshmallows by the campfire. She loved hiking, often venturing off the beaten path, in Michigan's Upper Peninsula to seek out hidden waterfalls. A lover of travel, she visited Mexico often and fulfilled a bucket list trip to Europe and New York provided by her two daughters. Sabrina also went on many trips to Florida with her Mom and sometimes with her Dad in tow. During her many trips to Mexico, she found joy in swimming and snorkeling in the clear waters of the Riviera Maya and Cozumel. Sabrina was known for getting dressed up every night for dinner and peacefully watching the sunrise each morning, no matter how late she stayed up the night before. She enjoyed good food and had a very diverse palate.

Her interests were also diverse; she enjoyed dancing, attending plays, many concerts, and the symphony. Sabrina enjoyed spending long hours visiting various museums. Train trips to Chicago were frequent. Possessing a keen sense of fashion and a flair for style, Sabrina was an avid smart shopper, spending countless shopping hours with her mom. She enjoyed an average of 50 bike rides a year with her husband. Together they watched late night movies weekly while she consumed her fair share of popcorn. Sabrina was always up to date on current and political events. She was extremely generous with charitable donations of many causes. Above all, Sabrina loved spending time with her large family and friends, and cherished being a grandmother.

Sabrina will be remembered as the beloved wife of 45 years to John Gerard
