“ To the family of Sadie Abraham : Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

“ God bless Aunt Sadie and Uncle Dave. They are together again in heaven. They were loving, peaceful and happy people who were generous with their love and time for others. I will always remember and I am grateful for the love and friendship she shared with my parents.

“ Sadie is the one of the most beautiful woman I have ever met, along with her two sisters Diane and Jeanette. They filled my life with love and many memories and set an example of what classy women are all about! My sympathy to your family for there loss .It definitely is a gift from God that you were all put in my life. Love you Sadie!!!!!!!

“ Where do I begin. Well what's the news, she would say when I walked thru the door. We watched Red Carpet events, she loved the fashion. We always caught the last five minutes of Survivor, just to see who got kicked off. Dancing with the Stars was one of her favorite shows. She would let me watch the West Wing even though she didn't like it. We talked politics and Religion. Never understood her choice in books. My boys were so young when I first met Sadie. She would give them a dollar after they spent the night. She would say, put this in the bank and someday you will have a million dollars. They were so excited to go there and spend the night. She would watch cartoons with them. She would thank them for coming to help with David. We shared a love of travel. She would tell me of all her adventures and I would share mine with her. She was just as excited about my trip to Russia as I was. I looked forward to my nights with her. I looked forward to Christmas and the cookies she made. She would say, just two and no more. She was one of the kindest people I have ever met. She welcomed everyone into her home with open arms. Family was so important to her. Our sympathy to all of you especially to Diana and Jeanette.
