“ My sympathies to the family. Sally was a wonderful lady. She was a good friend of my late mother, Susanne Di Giulio. Loved Sally's baking, her beautiful home and garden and her wonderful sense of humor. I'm sure she's having a good time in Heaven with all her friends and family that passed on before her.

“ I met Sally at Beaumont Hospital and we became friends immediately. We had so many good times and she always made me laugh. We went on a couple of trips together with our other friend Helen. I remember when the 3 of us went to New York and we had brunch at the Plaza Hotel. We were all so excited and felt like we were so special and we were. When the bill came I looked at it and looked at both of them scared to tell them how much that bill was. I guess when I made the reservation I neglected to ask prices. When I told them we just looked at each other and then busted out laughing. I remember Sally saying, My Kids will never Believe This!!!! After that weekend Sally said that was the most fun she had in a long time....I loved Sally so much!!! Unfortunately I lost contact with her due to my caregiving to my Dad. How sad I am. RIP my dear friend!!!!!! Nancy Kerr

“ Sally has been one of my most cherished friends for nearly 40 years. No one made me laugh more (or harder) than she did. I have so many wonderful memories of this special, silly lady. Heaven is richer for her presence.

*Dear Doyle Family,
Sally and I went through 12 years of school together, from first grade at St. Veronica to graduation from East Detroit High School in 1954. She always mentioned her sisters. I don't know how many she had. Sally's family lived in a house close to Nine Mile Road. I walked past her house on my way home.
My condolences to everyone.

*Dear Doyle Family,
After Sally graduated from St. Veronica School's 8th grade, she attended East Detroit High School. During her sophomore year, Sally attended Cedar Camp in October of 1951 for a week. During her time in camp, she bonded with a group of young females who called themselves "The Rugged Women." They vowed to be friends for life and they were. Sally enjoyed many luncheons, marriages and baptisms with her friends, "The Rugged Women."
