She always maintained a beautiful garden with flowers and purple irises as well as many plants throughout her home. Sally attended the Chinese Community Church for many years, where she served on the board as well as a Sunday School teacher. She enjoyed bowling every Sunday after service in the church league. Sally loved listening to her favorite albums such as Tony Bennett, Jim Nabors, Andy Williams and Barbara Streisand. She loved to dance and was on the dance floor with her husband Byron at every wedding. Later in life, Sally worked as a hostess at both Peking House and then Empress Gardens. She would often tell stories about the customers who complained about the number of wontons in their soup. She finally retired at age 76. Sally loved to play card games. She and her husband Byron frequently played poker with other couples. She taught her grandsons her favorite games and looked forward to beating them in a very competitive game of UNO. She was very disappointed when caught with one card without declaring "UNO". Sally enjoyed traveling. She would visit her sister in California every September and stay for a month driving up and down the coast visiting nieces and nephews and winning money playing slots in the casinos. Sally loved the tropical breezes of Hawaii. She called it "paradise" and was able to visit the islands seven times with her daughter and son-in-law. She especially savored a strong virgin pina colada by the pool. Sally's family will be devoted to carrying on Sally's love of games, sense of humor, wit and wisdom, and loyalty to her family.

“ Condolences to the family. I didn't know your loved one, but wish to share some encouragement from the Bible with you. God cares for your distress at this time and wants you to lean on Him. This is mentioned at I Peter 5:7. Also Revelation 21:4 says that death, mourning, and pain will one day be gone. And Acts 24:15 says there will be a resurrection of our loved ones. I hope this comforts you!

“ Mom . . . Dedicated to My Beloved
Evening shadows make me blue
When each weary day is through
How I long to be with you, my happiness
Every day I reminisce
Dreaming of your tender kiss
Always thinking how I miss my happiness
A million years it seems
Have gone by since we shared our dreams
But I'll hold you again
There'll be no blue memories then
Whether skies are gray or blue
Any place on earth will do
Just as long as I'm with you, my happiness
My Happiness

“ Deepest sympathies to the Lim family. I clearly remember Sally and Byron's wedding celebration in Detroit. As a seven year old I was delighted that I was allowed to stay up past midnight to help celebrate. Sally's smile will live in my memory and her children are the legacy of her graciousness. Lida Lim
