“ The world has lost a wonderful woman who brightened everyone's day. She taught us all through her kind words, her smile, her caring ways. She made everyone feel special. We knew her family, her home, her garden, her cats, because she talked lovingly about them all. We miss her every day. Our hearts go out to Sandy's family as they shoulder her loss. She leaves many beautiful memories to treasure.

“ I am very honored to have gotten to know such a beautiful person. Sandy was always happy and so proud of her family. She was such a giving person and I will miss seeing her out working in the garden which she so loved. Sandy had so many friends with her great personality, she will be greatly missed. Her family is in my thoughts and prayers.
