

Sandra L. Miller

January 8, 1951 - December 5, 2016

Sandra Lee Miller (65), "The Royal Oak Walker", passed peacefully of multiple myeloma on December 5th, 2016; while being lovingly cared for by family, friends and the kind people of Beaumont Hospice. An extremely proud mother of three, Sandy was born January 8th, 1951 in the historic Washington Square Building at Royal Oak General Hospital to Robert and Jeanette (Broaddus) Greig. Sandy lived all of her life in Royal Oak, save a grand chapter in Keego Harbor. She attended Dondero High School, was a mainstay at the Grande Ballroom, Backseat Saloon, Dally in the Alley, Arts Beats and Eats, the Woodward Dream Cruise and anywhere there was live music and art. Despite many challenges over the course of her life, most notably the loss of her youngest son Jason Miller (1975-2002), Sandy managed to collect and surround herself with beautiful art and artifacts. Inspired in so many ways by her late Uncle Eric (artist John Eric Broaddus), she would arrange her collections into elaborate, ever-evolving shrines around her apartment. A fiercely dedicated walker, participating in multiple Aids Walks throughout her life, Sandy put in many miles daily, rain or snow, to the businesses and gathering places of Royal Oak. A fixture around town, Sandy relished meeting interesting people, hearing their stories and sharing her own. She is survived by her beloved children Tiffany (Tracy) Miller, Eric Miller; siblings Bob Greig, Linda (John) Elias, Gary Greig, Steve (Kari) Greig; nieces and nephews Trevor Rutkowski; Kier and Logan Greig; Mallory Elias; Keifer, Mikayla and Damon Greig; former spouse Robin Miller; siblings Sharon Miller and Jay (Aspasia) Miller. Cremation services provided by Wm. Sullivan and Son Funeral Home. A celebration of life will be planned for spring 2017. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to The Paralyzed Veterans of America (PVA.org).
