“ My deepest sympathies. I will always hold Sandy near to my heart. She is one of the best souls I will ever be blessed to have called my friend. Our love for animals brought us together but our deep conversations sustained us. She will forever that strong bright light that shines for many of us. Thank you for your friendship, grace and wisdom. Sorry you had to go and my dearest condolences to your family. Lisa Conroy

“ John, You have my most sincere and deepest heartfelt condolences on the passing of Sandra. I know how you feel having been through the same thing a short time ago. It might be that when our Lord rose, he decided that he would take Sam with him as he had a purpose for her as he did with Dee. Hopefully our two wonderful ladies will find each other in one of the many rooms in his Father's house. God Bless.
