“ I would just like to say that I am Scott's family. I am his cousin. I just heard of his passing a few months ago. Nobody called and told me anything. He was a brother to me and my brothers jimmy and timmy. We were born and raised together as brothers and sisters. His cousin/brother timmy is beside himself with grief. He not only lost a brother/cousin but also his best friend. The tears will never stop for the love of our family member and our family. All my love all my life. We will be with him and the rest of our family when Jesus calls us home. I hope he is with the rest of them waiting for us. Mema said she would have a place waiting for us so scott out of us grandkids is there with her first waiting on the rest of us. We love him. I have to stop now because our hearts are breaking. love you scottie!

“ Scott came into my life in 2003 and will always be a part of me until I am with him again in Heaven - its still a tremendous shock and so sorrowful, but God must have known in His plan that Scott was to live a short life here on Earth - Scott always told me he wished he would go before me cuz he couldnt bear life without me - I told him the same, but he said he would be there first to catch me when I arrived - I and we never ever expected this would happen now - we spoke of 50 years from now - I love you with all my heart and soul Scott - even though I feel you all around me and know you're watching over me, Amanda, Shianna and Scottie, life will never be the same until we are joined together again. Scott is an incredible, loving, protective and attentive man and I am truly blessed to have him in my life and always will.

“ My daddy will be truly missed...he was my best friend and my hero...i knew that whenever i was down he would cheer me up...it hurts so bad to know hes not here no more to hug me or kiss me or to tell me everything is going to be ok...i want to be with my daddy so bad because i cant handle living in a world where my daddy isnt around...i know it was his time to go but i wish god could've healed his hurting heart...my family has been such a wreck since my daddy left this world...i never pictured either of my parents in a casket...and what makes it worse is when no one understands...no one could ever understand the pain i feel every day now without my daddy...

“ I just learned of the passing of Scott and I just can't believe it. It seems like yesterday that he and I worked together at Foley, although I haven't been there since the end of last school year. He was a great friend and from what I knew of him a great Dad and Husband. He was always talking about his family and very proud of his children. He and I would share stories and laughs when we worked together and Scott was one of those people that could always pull you out of that slump that you might be in with a joke and always willing to lend a hand. I am sorry that I didn't get a chance to pay my last respects to Scott. Hey Buddy you will be missed. God Bless - Chris Peurach

“ I just want to say that my dad was a great man. I miss him a lot...He was the best father anyone could ever ask for. Its comforting to know that he is in a better place than here, but I hate that he's not here with me and my brother and sister. We were not supposed to lose our father so soon. But I understand that it must have been his time. God knew that his future didnt look good, as far as health. I just want to thank everyone for their condolences and support, it is greatly appreciated. Its good to know that my father was so loved. I just wish people could have known him from my point of view. They would have seen an even more incredible man.

“ To The Brown Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Scott was such a nice person. He always had a smile and a nice word for everyone. I would see Scott working hard when I was leaving work and although brief, I always enjoyed our conversations. May the Lord be with you in your time of loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ To the family of Scott Brown, We were so saddened to hear of Scott's passing. Scott was such a wonderful person, and had such a beautiful smile. No matter what he was doing, you could always count on him to drop everything, and help us with whatever we needed help with around the school. He always had a smile on his face, and was laughing about something. He will truly be missed. May God wrap His loving arms around each of you, and give you the strength and comfort you need to get though the days ahead.

“ Dear Brown Family: Your family is in our prayers. I was shocked to hear the news from our daughter who came home from school and informed us about Scott's passing. Two things come into mind about Scott. I Mary was picking up my daughter from school when I ran into Scott in the hallway. The first thing you noticed about him is that he was "ALWAYS SMILING." Whenever I saw him he had a smile. This week I asked him how he was and his response was "GREAT I hope your the same." Another time was getting help from him when I worked the Bishop Foley Auction. He was a joy and if you had a question he always had a response and would help you find what I needed. Again I am sorry for your loss and God now has another son up in heaven with him.

“ Scott, I will greatly miss your hearty laughter in my classroom after school. You were a friend and always made me feel welcome at Foley. I will miss our daily conversations about sports and how you would catch me singing my heart out to the country songs on the radio. What a smile you had! I am so sad that you are not with us but I pray that you are in a better place, filling the heavens with your boisterous laughter. My classroom has seemed empty and lonely the last two days after school. It is such a loss for Foley and so many of the students are saddened by your passing. My heart, prayers and sympathy go out to your kids and your wife. May God's angels escort you to the eternal happiness of heaven and may they bring some consolation to your family who mourns your loss. I will miss you man! May the souls of the departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. GO JETS! Love, Ken from Room 227

“ Scott Family, My thoughts and prayers are with you and the Scott family. I am a coach at foley and had the pleasure of talking with Scott daily and also when he was at notre dame prep. I know he will be missed by all. We often talked after every game, and he would always ask "how did the kids do". I am so grateful to know Scott and will miss him, I know he was proud of his family.
