“ No words can possibly convey the sadness in my heart. Scott you always could make me laugh especially with the banter we would go back and forth with each other. I know if we didn't pick on each other we'd think there was a problem. We talked about everything and anything, always ending with a laugh or hug when the conversation got serious. You were a kind soul and would give the shirt of your back to anyone that needed it. There wasn't anything you couldn't help me figure out.

The last two yrs you took me under your wing , if you will, to make sure I was ok and not alone after my loss, your third wheel I used to say. I am so thankful for that and all you have done not only for me, but the love and caring you gave my kids as well.

I will truly miss you, but will never forget you. I will always feel blessed to have had you not only in my life, but as a dear friend.

You fought a hard fight and I'm so proud of you. Rest easy now with no pain my friend.

You will forever be in our thoughts and hearts.

Love Denise
