“ To the Sheridan Family: My deepest sympathy goes out to all of you. This world has lost a great, great man. He was so genuine. We have lost a great and always loyal friend. He was so fun and caring- to everyone. I will always remember his smile and the many, many wonderful memories I have of him- Jamaica, homecoming, his football games and going to Big Boys after, the many talks we had, our walks to his house- I will miss you Scott.
