

Scott Ryan Pasternacki

February 8, 1992 - November 10, 2018

Scott Ryan Pasternacki, age 26, passed away November 10, 2018. He is survived by his loving mother, Robin Pasternacki and his father, Ralph Pasternacki. He was the loving brother of Faren (Rob) Thompson and dear grandson of Dan and Laura Jones and the late Ralph and Janet Pasternacki.

Scott was a graduate of Stevenson High School in Sterling Heights.

Scott will forever be remembered by all who knew and loved him.

He was strong, caring and considerate of everyone.

His intelligence always guided him in the love and support of all he loved and guided his convictions for a greater world through promoting acceptance of all people.

Following is a response that Scott wrote to a story on Facebook:

“I absolutely believe that women and men are equal. Anyone who knows me knows that I am the first to stand up for a woman and someone who knows first hand that she can do whatever it is he can do. My mother taught me such by example from a very early age. However – posts and mindsets such as this are toxic. Equality doesn’t come from trying to promote one over the other.

There is absolutely nothing that anyone cannot do – and we achieve that by supporting each other. Regardless of gender, race, sexual orientation, gender identity, etc., equality is achieved by acceptance, not degradation.”

Scott’s sense of humor was fast and witty – his laugh will be remembered by all who knew and loved him.

He was a gift from God.

“ Scott.. its been a long time, years since we last talked. I went on Facebook to see if i could find you and reconnect, and found this instead. I can't put into words how i feel right now but there are so many tears.

I dont think you ever knew what a bright light you were in the world or what you added to peoples' lives just by being you. I will never forget you.

Rest in peace Scott.

“ Scott and I have been best friends since we were 4 years old. I will never completely process what has happened. Scott is... and forever will be... my best friend, my spirit animal, my anchor, and my soulmate. We had a certain connection that most people will never find in their entire lifetime. From when he broke his crayon in kindergarten, just so he could pull me in for a kiss on the cheek because he knew I would offer mine. Then, graduating high school where our parents made us dance around Joe's Crab Shack in ridiculous outfits. I just saw you two weeks before you passed. As soon as you came through the doors at that restaurant, we immediately made eye contact, and ran to eachother and embraced for what felt like 10 minutes. I have far too many memories to count, and I thank you for that. Nobody can, nor will, ever replace you. You have left a scar on my heart, and it is the only scar that I am grateful will never heal. I know you will always be with me... and I will forever cherish that. I love you, Scottie Ry Ry.

“ Scott, our family has another angel in Heaven. We're left broken hearted and feeling so empty by your loss. You've been taken from us way to soon, but Scott you left us with such precious memories, that will forever fill our hearts and souls. You've been part of the family for as long as we can remember. The special bond you have, had with Stepheni, trickled right into all of us. Your infectious smile and kind heart will forever fill our hearts. Letting go and saying goodbye is such a heartbreaking thing to do. So until we meet again sweet Scott.

“ *To my beautiful son...my heart, my soul, my life...
You are the most amazing person, loving, thoughtful, smart and funny.
You were wise beyond your years. A gentle soul with the heart of an angel.
Always willing to help and support a friend, kind words, laughter, a shining light in the dark.
Words alone cannot describe my love for you and the awesome son you are, the world has truly lost one of the good guys.
I do not know why God would take someone who brought so much good into so many lives, why he would take an angel he sent to brighten the lives of so many.
Your laughter will live on in all those who knew.
As for myself...I bury my heart with you, and will live in the shadow of darkness as you were my light.
But you I will remember your laugh, smile, kindness, wisdom, intelligence and your wonderful gentle soul.
I will bring you home and keep you with me until the day we will be together again, watch out for me, stay by my side in spirit as I will never survive this alone.*

Thank you God for allowing Scott to be my son, hold him until the day I can hold him again.

I LOVE YOU SCOTT, with all my heart, mom

“ I guess I will go first. However I don't really know what to say. I Will start by sending my deepest condolences to his family whom I've never met. Which is unbelievable because my niece Stepheni has been his best friend since they were 4. I honestly can't say enough about Scott. I have so many fond and fun memories with him and just absolutely loved him and always will!!! I saw him the week before and we had such a great time!!! I'm going to hold on to that and think of it as gift!!! Much love to you all!!! Cyndi (Wood) Gray xo
