

Scott Seymour

January 12, 1980 - December 17, 2016

Scott (Geoffrey Scott Seymour II) was born in Pontiac, Michigan January 12, 1980 and unexpectedly passed on December 17, 2016 at Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak, Michigan at 36 years old. Scott lived in Ferndale with his wife Amreen, their dog little boy dog, “Princess” Bison. Amreen and Scott are expecting their first child in February 2017.

Scott’s parents, Geoffrey Scott Seymour and Carol Mann Seymour, were proud to bring home their almost 11 pound baby Scott to his first home in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. Scott’s “little” brother Ben was his first best friend and nemesis and remained his partner in crime. Scott was a bright and adventurous child who loved being outside finding gross things, making up his own games, and teaching his brother about nature and life. Scott was a curious person who never stopped learning and teaching himself and others. He graduated from Lahser High School in Bloomfield Hills in 1998, where he was an outstanding student, swimmer, and friend to many of whom he remained close.

Scott graduated from the University of Michigan and his Dad couldn’t have been more pleased for him to be a Wolverine. True to his nature of being a life-long learner, Scott went on to earn his Teaching Certificate and Master’s Degree from Wayne State University, his Firefighter and EMT certificate, and was in the process of becoming a Paramedic.

Scott married his wife Amreen Khan June 22, 2013, finally, 13 years after meeting, by a lake in West Michigan. Amreen and Scott united over their love of travel, adventure, and community involvement. Scott and Amreen traveled across the globe, including several countries in Africa, Asia, South America, the Caribbean, and more road trips than could be counted. Scott was a voice for the disenfranchised and was a fierce advocate for social justice issues, and was involved in Project Community, Greening of Detroit, Student Conservation Association, and several other organizations. Scott had such a lust for life that his hobbies and interests were countless and impossible to list. He loved to try new food, sky dive, snowboard, surf, bike, hunt, fish, motorcycle, hike, collect and make projects from yard sale finds, garden, tend to his plants, drive racecars, and do any other extreme or interesting activities that anyone could think of. Scott was wicked funny, and had a contagious laugh.

Scott is survived by his large and loving family, wife Amreen Khan, baby coming in February 2017, parents Geoff and Carol Seymour, brother Ben Seymour and his girlfriend Julia Simmons, "Super Cousin" Hayley and her husband and Scott's hunting/fishing buddy Jon Hauger and their children Jake and Lynnsey, "Super Cousin" Ashley Mann and her boyfriend Tim Bokovoy, cousins Lisa Johnston and her children Mackenzie, Hannah, and Kendall, Adrienne and Gary Hart, Nick and Beck Belill and their children Samuel, Kathryn, Hannah, and David, Nathan Belill, Justin and Tara Blaska and their children Jacob and Laura, Emily Blaska, Molly and Ray Bacon and their children Laura and Joseph, Amanda and Derek Elston and their sons Brayden and Wyatt, Dan and Beth Ann Mann and their children, Joel Mann and Will Verchereau, Narissa and Micheal Metully, Luke Permoda and Frank Klim, Aunts and Uncles Ann MacDougal, Mary Belill, Martha and Phil Blaska, Joel and Jane Mann, Paul Mann and Becky Van Zant, Nancy Davis, Mark and Tina Mann. Parents-in-law Melinda and Ron Adams, Waheed Khan, grandmother-in-law, Judy Philipps, sister and brother-in-law Rania Khan and Jeff Ekegren.

Scott was preceded in death by beloved Aunt Judy Mann, Uncle David Mann, Cousin PJ Mann, Grandparents Jayne and Clarence Mann, and Dr. George and Helen Seymour.

“ Wow I just don't know what to say I'm so sorry for your loss I didn't know him but he must have been a great man and so young

“ I always liked Scott. We weren't terribly close, but when we hung out, we always had fun. I remember taking him & Leor for a ride on my boat on the Detroit river. I smoked cigarettes at the time, and I made the ignorant mistake of flicking my butt into the river. Not purposely trying to litter, just careless with my trash. Scott let me know about it, too. At the time, I didn't realize the significance, but his tongue lashing always stuck with me, and it permanently changed the way I treated our environment. Every one that knew him understood his love of the outdoors. I'm proud to say I knew him well enough to share a lot of laughs. I still remember him being more fearless than I, showing me the right place to jump off of the highest bridge in Ann Arbor. I remember how proud he was of his and Amreen's new house, and the work he did to the kitchen. We've had numerous random good times over the years, and I'm sorry to say that we didn't have more. My greatest regret is that I had no idea he was gone until he was. Go easy, good buddy - I hope you've found that great salmon & saxophone in the sky. Love, your friend - Justin Mayville

“ Sending loving vibes to you, Carol & Geoff. What a blessing both of your sons are. I will never forget being blessed to be at your home when Scott serenaded us with a musical instrument he had purchased and taught himself to play in Africa the weeks prior...

“ A piece of me broke when I heard the news. A life long friend that came in and out my life just at the right times. So many memories I have throughout the years. Surf Club, LHS, playing cards at the kitchen table, Homecoming Dance, mindless wandering at a nearby town, motorcycle rides through the streets of Ferndale.... There was never a dull moment in your company. Time was passed with good hearty laughs, deep thoughtful conversations, moments of silence with Buddy Guy most likely playing in the background, or perhaps some gardening in the back yard. Your zest for life was contagious. The Seymour Family is one of the tightest families that I have had the privilege of knowing. May your strength and love carrier you through. Many blessings to dear sweet Amreen, baby Seymour, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour and Ben. Tons of love to you all.

“ "My condolences go out to Scott's family. It was a privilege to have him stay with me down here in Brazil, where we did a lot of fun things together. It was all too obvious he had a good upbringing, showing among other qualities, strong character. I am very grateful for the support he provided my son Luke upon his arrival in Michigan. His unexplainable, premature passing will be felt by all those who knew him.

“ Living next door to the Seymours was a memory that lives in the Dohring heart to this day. Scotty was the one that all the kids looked up to. His reckless abandon style was one which attracted Chip, Alyce, and little Artie.

Geoff and Carol, you are amazing parents and your loyalty to family and each other is what,as always,will get you through this. I can't even comprehend the sadness you are experiencing. Lean on each other. My thoughts are with you.

My deepest sympathies to the Seymour family. Scott had a wonderful personality and every time we ran into each other as "adults" we always made each other laugh. I'll always remember our days growing up in Hickory Grove, going to the same schools and constantly goofing around together. I know he'll be missed by anyone who ever had the great pleasure of knowing him.

“ RIH Scott. Your one of the coolest, smartest, non judgmental men I know. Always there to help out a friend in need. It was an honor to have known you. “ We were in the basement and Amreen was with her friends (new mothers group) and his job was to clean out the basement to make room. So, I came over that night and I helped him. In the basement was this neon sign. He was like here Walton it's yours. I'm like dude, what if the lights go out? How do I fix them? His reply: I don't know dude, but AR (told me to make room and that's what we gotta do)! How did this turn into "we"? I love u man. 🤝

When I took Scott Steelhead fishing for the first time I informed him how difficult it was going to be. I told him tales of all the people I know that have been fishing for years and have never landed a fish. We got to, what became, our favorite fishing spot and started fishing. I left him in a spot I didn't think was very good and told him what to do and went upstream. There were a lot of guys fishing the same stretch of river and Scott instantly hooked a beautiful fish. I looked down stream and Scott was holding up this huge fish and pumping his fist with that huge smile of his that took up his whole face. I started running towards him with an excitement only a boy feels. He made me feel that way a lot. After a brief celebration Scott caught another huge fish. Will never forget that day.

“ Scott... a man loved and admired by so many, who inspired so many. I will never forget when you taught me how to filet a fish I had caught myself, or when you ordered that very specific edition of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland for me just because. You always had a new book for me to read, or some weird food or tea to make me taste. Thank you for all your advice, and for always treating me like an adult even when I wasn't. For always encouraging the parts of myself that were genuinely myself and NEEDED that encouragement whether it be through the books, letting me play guitar at your wedding, or the long talks late into the night, and for teaching me so much about social issues and justice. I have always considered you and Amreen to be just as much my friends as you are my moms. You live forever in the people you have touched, and I promise to try to do all the things for your baby that you did for me!
