“ We are so sorry for the loss of your mother. I do remember her so very well back in the Cousino days. She was a very kind and gentle woman. Our mothers never really leave us they are always with us still teaching and loving. I wish her total peace and eternal Joy with your dad. Corrine & Rick Stier

“Sera, my sister, my second mom, where do I start?! We’ve been through the good, the bad and the ugly, together. I all started when I was born, and you were a teenager (I’m sure you were thrilled, LOL). Even though I was a pain in your butt AND a pain in your hip (from carrying me around everywhere), you always took good care of your baby sister. Let’s move on to when you were a newlywed and finishing High School. When you would leave for school, I would jump in bed with my new brother for snuggles (I was only 4 years old)! When Joe told you what was going on every morning after you left, you pretended to leave, but stayed to catch me in the act. You thought it was the funniest thing ever. You were so loving and caring, with a huge heart. Fast forward to my graduation. You and Joe got me my first car. A 14 year old Chevy Impala, to be exact. It was red with a black top, and I drove around like a big shot in it. That is just scratching the surface. I spent countless weekends with you, Joe and the kids (besides...I had nowhere else to go....dad wouldn’t let us go anywhere! LOL). Sera, I’m going to really miss our monthly coffee dates at WellBridge, with you, Nancy, my Ro, Aunt Angie and Joy. I’m going to miss your snarky responses and the evil look when you didn’t like something we said. Until we see each other again, have a great time dancing and partying in Heaven! I’m SO sad yet SO happy at the same time. I never thought that was possible, but it is. I love you to Heaven and back. Rest In Peace. Love, your baby sis Darlene

“ Our mom wasn't perfect as everyone knows but she was our mother and we loved her very much. Growing up she was the best . She would bring us Geloso's Bakery brownies and individual milks to our class for our birthdays, let us play hooky to spend the day together, and pick us up from school for lunch and much more. Our mother wishes she could have done things differently but she made sure we would be stronger than her. She was ALWAYS there for us when we needed advice and wisdom or just a shoulder to cry on. No person I know easier to talk to, so patient, kind , understanding and loving. Never did she judge us, always had trust in us, and stuck up for us. The mistakes we made didn't phase her, she would just reassure us that it was okay and to just make better choices. We took care of our mother the best that we could for many years and she was always so grateful to us. She always said, “You do so much for me and I wish I could do more for you guys.” I don't think she realizes what she has done for us. She taught us how to be good people, to be strong, to be good wives, mothers, and cooks (still no where near as good as her cooking was). Our mother was and will always be a blessing to us and her grandchildren.

Mom,

You will be missed tremendously but we can find peace knowing you are home where our Lord has always intended for you to be. Picturing you dancing for Papa brings such joy to our hearts and makes these hard times a little easier. We love you Mom.
