“ We lost our 26 year old daughter on Dec. 15. May you find comfort knowing your son is now safe and happy in Our Lord's arms. This earth we live on is only our temporary home. When we are born, we are born with a purpose, a job to do. When God has seen our job finished, He takes us home again..Although we grieve for our lost children, find peace knowing they are safe home in God's arms never to hurt, suffer again..they are happy and doing OK...

“ This is very hard for me...I am going to miss my dear friend, Shane. He was always there when I needed him. He never once let me down. His personality was always up tone and inspiring. He was wise beyond his years. The world needs more good ones like Shane was. God knows how much I will miss him. Kris Peterson
