“ I met Shane about 5 years ago, he was always kind and respectful. He always had a smile to share and his goodness left an impression on me. Although he is gone...his smile will never leave my heart or mind. My heart goes out to the Knoll family as they grieve the loss of their son, brother, nephew, cousin...no words can express the depth of your loss and no words can fill the gapping hole that is left in your heart. Shane was a good young man and he will be missed by many. May the love of God help soothe your family during this time of loss and please know that our family is praying for you.
