“ I am so sorry about Shannon she was a beautiful person and mother. I would often see her walking Julie down the street almost everyday, and meeting the other mothers at the park to chat. I wish I could have helped in some way. I used to babysit Rachel for Jeff before Shannon came into his life. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Sincerely, Janet and Brent York, Stacey Patel. Your old neighbors on California St.

“ Shannon was the first person we met when we moved back to Michigan. My brother Ian and I went across the street to borrow some duct tape so we could get our fridge installed. Shannon answered the door (after we were greeted by their cat!) and called to Jeff, who promptly showed us about 50 different types of tape and their functions. "No, just duct tape, thanks!"

She made the jewelry for my wedding. It is still, by far, the most beautiful jewelry I have ever seen. She found this super complex earring to make, and for my wedding made it for the first time. She used all these beautiful swarovski crystals and beads, and I cherish it and the memory of her making it so very much.

After my husband Jesse and I moved to Massachusetts, we decided to plan a surprise trip out to visit my parents. Shannon was our point of contact, arranging all the details of our pickup from the airport, the car seat we were borrowing from them, and setting up the surprise for my parents at her house.

There are so many parts of the last 10 years of my life that I can remember with Shannon involved in some way. She was a wonderful friend, a caring mother, and passionate about her beliefs. I am so very saddened by this loss. She touched many people's lives with her bright smile and loving nature. I hope she is able to feel peace as she moves to the next stage of her life, whatever that may be.

“ To such a beautiful person how I wished I could have eased your burden and got you adequate care. The hospitals failed you it was not your fault my friend. We spent some fun times this semester driving to Tuesday night class together. I miss you and wish I could have eased your pain. school will never be the same. I wish you had an advocate who could have helped you with the things you were struggling to get done alone. I love you and am sorry I will never see your beautiful face laughing at something dumb we did. One night this semester Shannon locked her keys in her car we saw them laying on her car seat. She just couldn't keep her thoughts straight but we got a good laugh out of it. Especially when a good looking security guard unlocked the doors for us. God bless you my friend and rest in peace until we meet again. I love you girl just the way you were. No more fear my friend.

“ To the family of Shannon Parsons : Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.
