“ I am so glad to have known such a wonderful woman. I didn't get to see her and Kirk a lot. Only if we happened to be up north at the same time. I loved spending time with both you. Two of the goods ones. I'm so sorry Kirk. I'll miss seeing her.

“ Love is the first thought that comes to mind when I think of Sharon. I grew up with Sharon and Kirk as our neighbors next door to their up north home. I remember being so excited each time the family was there. As a young girl Sharon treated my sister and I as her own and showed us nothing but love. Sharon was a wonderful woman and will be greatly missed. Much love goes out to Sharon's family. With love Olivia Majeski (hohl)

“ Sharon and I have shared a friendship since our elementary school years at St. Lawrence. She was such a kind and thoughtful person. Her bright, beautiful smile would light up a room. The memory of Sharon that I will hold in my heart forever happened this past Christmas Eve at church. Kirk, being an usher, was directing us to receive Holy Communion. I gave him a hug and wished him a Merry Christmas. I then told him to wish Sharon the same. He proceeded to tell me that I should tell her myself, as she was sitting a few rows behind me. I went up to Sharon and in her words....it turned into the best and longest bear hug in the world! Not a word was spoken, not even a Merry Christmas....we just hugged and cried. For me, that was the best and most meaningful Christmas Eve mass I have ever attended. So my friend, I know that someday, I will see you again. I will never forget you and you will always be in my heart....especially on Christmas Eve. Rest in peace Sharon ❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ I have know Sharon since our Freshman year at Utica High School. We shared the same homeroom all through school.

I always enjoyed visiting with Sharon and Kirk at the jewelry store. They were always so nice and fun to be around.

Sharon has been a Facebook friend for some time. She was always quick to say something nice and to make you feel special plus she was the Tigers #1 fan.

Sharon was a beautiful, classy, sweet and friendly lady and I will miss chatting with you on Facebook. My heart goes out to Kirk and the family.

Rest In peace Sharon
