“ Sharon was a very dear sister-in-law for 40 years. She was and is such a special dear and loving person. My dearly deceased husband and I so enjoyed her visits to see the boys when they were young. Auntie Sharon was always a joy to them and Lou and I. Mike is a tribute to her loving ways and will follow in her path of caring for all. Mike and Mom Will always remain in my heart and Prayers.
Sincerely, Susan Handzel Clapprood

“ Sharon was my supervisor at Towne Mortgage Company. She was a great supervisor and always there to listen. I will miss her very much at Towne. When we got the news today about her passing, our whole office got really quite and had a moment for her and i could feel the sadness come over me and all the other coworkers. I am sorry for your loss.
