“ I'm so sorry to hear of Shaun's passing! I had the joy of working with him for the last 2 years at Prader Willi Homes. He was always so friendly and inquisitive. He and I connected watching Jeopardy and having great conversations about our families. Shaun was incredibly smart and had such great advocacy skills. My deepest condolences to all of you! He will be greatly missed. Terri W.

“ I worked with Shaun at PWHO. I knew him from the day he arrived until the day he left. I got to see him shrink and grow at the same time :) I was Shaun's coach for Special Olympics, and I will never forget Shaun telling me how much he enjoyed it because he knew that I would never let him "settle" and would always push him to be his best self. Shaun and I bonded over a love of Batman and cartoons, but we also had discussions about faith and what it meant to be a Christian. When you work in this field as long as I have, you really stop seeing the disability and learn to see the person; I will always treasure the moments I shared with Shaun, the wonderful, charming, thoughtful person that he truly was. My deepest condolences.
