“ Sheila was my neighbor in Mesa, and became my sister in Jesus soon after I met her. She was a lovely, kind woman, and I am blessed to have known her.

“ I met Sheila in a Bible study led by her neighbours, the Grays, and over the years we were good friends. The last I had heard from her, she was going to Michigan to help her son who was having surgery and treatments. I had not heard from her in 3 months, and decided to check the obituaries. I am shocked. But I know she was trusting her soul to her Lord Jesus Christ and I will see her again in heaven. She was a beautiful caring woman. May the Lord comfort your hearts as you mourn, and as you remember her life and love.
