“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the God of all comfort be with you as you look to days soon when sickness, sorrow and even death will be things of the past. Deepest sympathy. Rev 21:4

“ I am so sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you be comforted by our ...God and Father of our Lord... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God". 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Please also find comfort in the following: John 11:11 where Jesus said, "...Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from the sleep." Our Heavenly Father holds out the hope of the resurrection and the ability to see our loved ones again.

“ Sherry was such a beautiful soul. So many wonderful memories of the times we shared together, her contagious laugh, the twinkle in her eye, the joy she had with her daughter. We spent many days as young mothers together with our girls. The greatest tribute to those who have passed is not grief but gratitude. How lucky I am to have known someone who was so hard to say goodbye to.

“ Mom, The day you died I kissed your face four times After you died I held you close to me I knew it would be the last time I held you for the rest of my life You were so sick, in so much pain That is no life I know you were afraid to die I hope you have found comfort Do you remember how I held your hand and lay my head on your shoulder Even at that moment I couldn't imagine life without you People talk about broken hearts in songs or movies Until that moment I had never known a true broken heart Over and over I thought "How can I live without you?" I watched you live, I watch you die Every day I look up at the sky I know you're waiting for me I miss you, I love you always
