“ I will always remember Shirley's devotion and dedication, as a mother and grandmother. She was very loving and proud of her son Ed and her granddaughter, Marsden. Our hearts and our thoughts are with the Frank family.

“ Shirley was my friend, my former mother-in-law, my second mom, and my daughter Marsden’s cherished grandmother. Everyone that was blessed to have known her will agree that she was a strong, courageous, kindhearted, woman with a sweet disposition. She loved her only son, Ed, with all her heart. She welcomed me into her family with open arms. She was absolutely delighted with Marsden Elizabeth’s birth...finally a grandma! Prior to that, my sisters’ children called her Grandma Shirley, which delighted her. She was always quick to tell a story from her childhood or of her travels, which I listened to hanging on her every word, no matter how many times she’d shared it before!
You will be missed dearly, “Mom”.
All my love,
Lynn
