McCartin, Shirley M., age 93, of Royal Oak, passed away August 20, 2017. Beloved wife of the late Lawrence. Loving mother of Mark (Marlene) and Timothy (Carla). Dear sister of E.J. (Barbara) and John (Genevieve) Owens, Mary Cleypool and the late Donald Owens and Dorothy (Bende) Parente. Proud grandmother of Larry, Erin, Daniel and Trish; and great grandmother of seven. The most important things in Shirley's life were her faith, her family and her friends. Shirley was an avid bridge player and an organizer of the Church bridge club as well as a volunteer in the Church office. She was an enthusiastic sports fan and loyal to the Tigers, Notre Dame and Michigan. She also enjoyed gardening, attending the theater and baking cookies with her grandchildren. One of her greatest joys was beating her sons at playing Scrabble! She loved family trips to the ocean and reading the latest best sellers. When it came to cooking, she delighted her family and friends with a variety of signature dishes and desserts, especially her gravy and stuffing which she learned from her Mom. She touched the lives of everyone she met with her positive outlook and boundless energy and was an inspiration to her children, grandchildren and their families. “ Dear loved ones of Shirley,
What a special woman! Shirley was a strong person of faith, love and courage! Even in her illness, she always had hope and optimism and a zest for life. I am sorry to be far away at this time, and I am grateful for so much quality time with her in recent years. Love and prayer know no distance nor time. These gifts I give you. Shirley will continue to bless us through life.
Peace to you!
