

Shirley A. Pipp

September 25, 1934 - June 5, 2022

Shirley Ann Pipp (Caudill) of Macomb Township and formerly of Royal Oak, passed away June 6, 2022. Born September 25, 1934, in Monticello, KY, she was preceded in death by her parents, Beckham & Bess Caudill, and by her loving husband Joseph R. Pipp.

Shirley was a devoted Mother to Joe (Joan) of Minneapolis and Charles (Anna) of Macomb; a beloved Granny to Charlie (Jackie), Joseph (Mandy), Steven, Andrew, Mackenzie, Tyler, and Jacob Pipp; a loving Sister to Janice (Jim) Heldenbrand and Joyce (Mike) Carrier. She is survived by nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends.

Shirley was an honors graduate of Highland Park High School, and an employee of Chrysler Corp. and Silver's Office Supply. Shirley supported her sons and grandchildren as a Cub Scout Leader, room mother, school volunteer, and by attending countless concerts, sporting events, and dance recitals. She will be remembered for her humor, her brilliant memory, and her generous nature. A visitation will take place at the Wm. Sullivan & Son Funeral Home 8459 Hall Rd. (3Blks East of Van Dyke) Utica, on Sunday (June 12th), from 2 pm - 6 pm. Visitation will continue on Monday (June 13th) from 10am until the time of service at 11 am.

Joe and Charlie, it was so thoughtful of you to provide the Livestream of this service today, as many of us in the family were not able to attend in person, Cousin Shirley was special. But Joe, you misquoted something that your Mom said. In answer to the question "Who does Granny love the best?" she always told me their answer was "You love us all the t'ame!"
