“ Spiro Taught me to forgive Taught me to laugh at myself taught me about humanity ,love , and family. I will always be grateful for his advice is unconditional love and his laughter and his huge heart . You will live on in all the lives that you touched all the love that you gave others . Rest in peace speed.

Love you

“ Deeply saddened to hear about Spyros' passing! Ever since we moved to California, we have lost touch, but thankfully Poppi has always shared how Spyros and the family were doing. As a young child in Ann Arbor, I remember the countless "pizza" parties at our home, with Spyros in the middle of it all -- playing guitar, trying new recipes, and sharing lots of laughter. To this day, Spyros, I remember your smiling, piercing blue eyes -- just like they are smiling in this picture. And Emily, I will never forget your strong handclasp when an ocean wave took me under. And Angelos, I remember when you came to L.A. (about 4yrs old??) and your dad said that you were perhaps "kakomathimenos" and you in turn said "No, I am kalomathimenos." And Katina, I'm sorry that we never met.

Thank you for the memories. Spyros, you are dearly missed! May all of you find some solace, somehow. Always in our hearts and thoughts.

“ My heartfelt sympathy and love goes to the entire Kontos family. What a beautiful man.

I will miss his humor, his laughter and loving generosity to all that knew him. I am so blessed to have known him and will deeply miss him.

“ Theo Spyros/Nouno was a special man. He was not only my Godfather, but was also a mentor to me. Simply put, he was larger than life. Always quick with a smile, hug or kind word. I will miss the time we spent together talking about our shared passions of soccer, music, and food. I will never forget his guitar playing, funny stories, and elaborately prepared and delicious meals we all shared as a family.

We all will miss him dearly.

Thea Emily, Katina, and Angelo, you are in our prayers.

May his memory be eternal.

With love,

Anthony (Nephew/Godson), Danna, Constantine and Marina Kontos

“ My condolences to the family. No one is ever totally prepared for the death of a loved one. Death claims the lives of those dear to us. May the God of all comfort sustain you during your grief-Psalms 55:22
